

Literary Notes.

The June number of THE HOMILETIC REVIEW brings to a worthy close the twenty-seventh volume of that successful publication. The Review Section opens with a clear and forcible discussion of "The Evidential Value of Miracles," by Prof. Marcus Dods, D. D., of Edinburgh. "The Lost Treasure from Egypt," is the title of a paper by the Rev. Camden M. Cobern, Ph. D., descriptive of an Arabic copy of the "Diatessaron" of Tatian, recently discovered in the land of the Pharaohs, and but just done into English by Rev. J. Howlin Hill, of Cambridge. Prof. Hunt, of Princeton, contributes a timely paper on "Vocation—Avocation—Vacation." Dr. J. B. Remsnyder, the well-known Lutheran pastor of New York City, discusses the doctrine of "The Real Presence." Dr. William Hayes Ward gives another of his articles on "Light on Scriptural Texts from Recent Discoveries," treating the special subject of "Shushan, the Palace." The Sermonic Section is peculiarly rich in its presentations of truth. Notably timely is Dr. Kerr B. Tupper's vigorous discussion of the Public School Question. The Memorial Day Sermon, by Rev. James D. Rankin, is one of the finest specimens of pulpit rhetoric which it has been our good fortune to meet. The other Sections of the REVIEW are well filled with interesting material.

THE GOSPEL HAMMER —AND— HIGHWAY GRADER.

By S. H. BASHOR.

IN CLOTH, postpaid, 20c.

The author says in his preface: "So many books have been written about Christ, telling people to come to Christ, yet failing to give a tangible idea how Christ is to be found. We thought of letting this work fill that place: Tell people of Christ, when to seek for salvation and how to obtain it." We think the little work meets the want very well.

WITHOUT THE

BOW (RING)

it is easy to steal or ring watches from the pocket. The thief gets the watch in one hand, the chain in the other and gives a short, quick jerk—the ring slips off the watch stem, and away goes the watch, leaving the victim only the chain.

This idea stopped
that little game:

The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the grooves, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.
